One Tiny Step at a time Ms Lisa Brown

Remember how I had been diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis? Yeah, that.... It was a significant enough reason to have begun my solo quest - the search for quality of life, one that would not be including that 'M.S shadow'. Ever again... I was to say hello to Panama for the second time, with my own ideas about how I could be treated for M.S...As a result, the treatment protocol would change for everyone in the world seeking help at the Stem cell institute for this horrid disease. The story continues...
