Near-Death Experience: Out of The Darkness Into The Light (Called into Life by the Light Series of e-books and audio books Book 4) Bernard Fleury

Learn what happens in the profound near-death experience that may really happen to you when you die. What if you could find peace of mind in the face of inevitable death? What if you could gain assurance that a world of light and a Being of Light awaits you when you die?

How does Near-Death Experience Out of The Darkness Into The Light reflect what happens to persons who have had a profound near-death experience that may really happen to me when I die? As the title suggests, this e-book /audio book is an account of the near-death experience that presents an overview of what this experience is as reported in several major studies.

The near-death experience has been documented at length and in detail in the books listed in the Bibliography and this is far from being an exhaustive listing. As you read this book you will find that I agree with Melvin Morse M.D., that near-death experiences are simply natural signs (not paranormal) that many scientists continue to ignore.

Until October 2, 2015 my study of Near-Death Experiences in search of the Light was primarily on the research of Raymond Moody M.D., Melvin Morse M.D., Pim Van Lommel M.D., Kenneth Ring Ph.D., and Bruce Greyson M.D., who developed a list of nine stages of the Near-Death Experience. That list plus Eadie's Twelve Stages/Points in her personal near-death experience was the focus of my search for the light in the near-death experience.

Then I came across J. Steve Miller's website www.character-education.info. I saw his book Near-Death Experiences As Evidence For The Existence Of God And Heaven. His presentation of Dr. Pim van Lommel's in a Dutch Hospital is included in this e-book.

During the same search to update my Near-Death information I found a researcher I was totally unacquainted with, P.M.H. Atwater who had been actively engaged in Near Death research since 1978.

She used an interview technique based on police investigations learned from her father. There are 3,000 adult experiencers and 277 child experiencers in her research base. Read Chapter Two of her 2011 Near-Death Experiences the rest of the story for the details. She discovered four distinctive patterns of the Near-Death Experience. These are presented in this e-book.

Atwater had never heard of Raymond Moody or his book until Kenneth Ring told her about them in 1981. "Naturally I came to look at the near-death phenomenon both the experience and its after effects in a different manner than the cohorts I had yet to meet."
