The Prophecy (Legacy of Cain Book 1) Gary De Hart

"Then Lucifer blew into the nostrils of his creation and called lightening from the skies above to impart his creation with everlasting life"...

Thus begins one of the most outstanding Christian suspense novels of its time. The Prophecy is a page-turning literary masterpiece as well as a poignant Biblical commentary in the end times mystery that transcend all mysteries.

Two men of God encounter Satan in a battle for the very soul of a small Canadian village only to discover this rural town's dark events are the precursor to the "End of times". While unraveling this Satanic intrigue, God's chosen men uncover the ancient prophecies revealing the "Legacy of Cain"; a legend detailing Satan's plot to bestow upon the earth his own evil son, a presence who has attacked mankind throughout history. Murders, witchcraft, and demonic possession are juxtaposed against the love of four young men and women who are chosen by God to counter Satan in the end of times.
