These days it seems like relationship books are a dime a dozen, that everyone has their own perception of how to develop and maintain the perfect relationship. The truth of the matter is, there is no such thing as a perfect relationship; however there is such a thing as a successful relationship. It really comes down to the couple and the sacrifices they are willing to make and the work they are willing to put into their relationship, that will determine if their relationship will be successful or not. This book was written, not to teach women how to control men, but to help women recognize the traits of the different types of men, to understand how men think, and to know what men need to stay happy and faithful in a relationship. Armed with that knowledge, women will be better equipped to find and keep a GOOD man, because trust me, no matter how many bad men you've encountered, there are plenty of GOOD men out there that are willing to appreciate, respect and love you the way you deserve to be loved.
