"There was nothing I could do."

A gripping true story about the twelve year old brother who is violently battered, bloodied and bruised by his heartless stepfather.

He witnessed violence, cruelty and neglect on a daily basis. He wanted to fight back, protect his younger brother and defend his mother. All goes horribly wrong when he attempts to confront his violent stepfather and the full horror is unleashed.

From the older brother's perspective comes the story of the violent stepfather 2 shedding light on horrific events that went on behind closed doors and a seemingly normal house. How despair, regret and fear become one.

A shocking true story.

"Unbelievable that this man is actually roaming freely, another amazing read with an interesting twist to be able to see the story unfold from the brother's perspective. As a writer and mother, I felt every emotion coursing through me as I wiped away my tears reading this harrowing true story" Joan Johns (Author)

WARNING: This book is based upon a true story of child abuse, and as such contains passages that some readers may find disturbing.
