Owned By Her Bear

BBW + Insanely Handsome Bear Shifter + Dangerous Psychopath = Sexy Romance with some bear action

Shelly continued to run, her steps now little more than exhausted stumbles.

A hand grabbed her arm, nearly jerking her off of her feet.

“Gotcha, bitch.”

Shelly screamed.

That scream was drowned out by a monstrous roar.

The little moonlight shining down on them was completely blocked out by the towering presence of a bear. Huge fangs glistened, dripping with saliva as the bear roared again.

Bryant stumbled backward, pulling Shelly down with him as he fell. Too scared and exhausted to run, Shelly just curled up.

Eyes closed, she could only hear as the bear advanced on Bryant, who went screaming off into the night.

She knew it was stupid, but a part of her was surprised he would just leave her to die at the hands of that bear. They were together, boyfriend and girlfriend. Sure it wasn't the best relationship, but they were together.

Now the bear was returning, its heavy steps not unlike Bryant's, as it closed the distance to her. Hot air puffed against her head, moving her hair as the bear snuffed at her.

This was it.

This was how she died.

She squeezed her eyes closed, waiting to be torn to pieces. Instead, the massive wet nose nudged against her back. Too scared and confused to move, she waited.

Nudge.

Was it testing to see if she was dead? Maybe it would go away.

Shelly hugged her knees tightly to her chest, just waiting to see what the bear would do.

After a few long seconds, it grunted, snorted, and then scooped her up in its massive paws. The claws somehow missed scratching her as it lifted her into the air and swung her around to land on its back.
