Facing eviction, Rhea Morrison, a young grieving widow, must save her failing bakery. An unexpected turn of events lands her at a singles retreat where she meets Martin Lane.

Pastor Martin laments over his secret, traumatic past mistakes. He's destined to lead his father's church, despite blatant rejection. He can't love Rhea - he's yet to forgive himself for his past. If Rhea knew how he used to be, she would have no interest in pursuing a relationship with him.

Rhea feels torn about her attraction to Martin – he's a pastor, and after her husband's death, she vowed to never get involved with another pastor. Can Martin and Rhea overcome their past so that they're free to love again?
