Not even magic can save her...

At every turn the mysterious Calder family has meddled in Detective Reece Prescott's investigations, so it's no surprise when the gorgeous Violet Calder lands in the middle of his undercover operation—literally.

Claiming she's his girlfriend makes perfect sense at the time. Wishing their fake romance was something more—that part defies reason and could cost Reece more than just his heart.

Violet has always insisted on leaving the hands-on private investigating to her siblings, right up until the sinfully hot detective needs her to play along. But the more she pretends to be in love with Reece, the more real the charade becomes.

Forced to tread carefully or risk exposing her family's secrets, Violet fears that not even magic can save her from falling for the one man she shouldn't.
