Elena is happily engaged to Stefan and feels as if she has everything figured out. However, when Damon returns to Mystic Falls after having been absent for over a year, old feelings resurface and Elena questions if she had made the right choice between them. An immersing tale of self-discovery, heartache and resolve, a glimpse is offered of an alternate path. A path that might have resulted if Elena had not met her death at the conclusion of the show's third season. "But Damon had left an absence within her life that she had been unable to fill. He wasn't only a competitor for her affections but also a close friend. It all came down to that and it was something Stefan had never been."
