La trampa / The Associate (Spanish Edition) John Grisham

Las reglas de la Liga Juvenil de New Haven estipulan que cada chico debía jugar al menos diez minutos en cada partido. Sin embargo, se hacían excepciones con los jugadores que habían hecho enfadar a sus entrenadores saltándose los entrenamientos o infringiendo alguna otra norma. En tales casos, el entrenador estaba facultado para redactar un informe antes del partido y comunicar al árbitro que fulano o mengano no jugarían mucho o nada por culpa de tal o cual infracción. De todas maneras, la liga no lo veía con buenos ojos ya que, según ella, no se trataba tanto de competir como de pasarlo bien.
