The Recruiter: a short story: a new adult urban fantasy (Vampire Addictions Book 1) Thea Atkinson

Hell hath no fury like a vampire spurned.

The Recruiter is meant as a 'taste'; Find out how to get the second story for nothing. Visit theaatkinson.com for info.

Sassy Jade Sanchez has just been dumped after four years of devout monogamy, and she's starving for a little affection. Her self-esteem is shattered, her confidence damaged, and she's had so many ugly cries she's afraid her face will never be the same. Enter hot as hell Sam, who asks her to an upscale costume party. It sounds like just the ticket to squeeze the last bit of melancholy from her system. Hell, if she's lucky, smoking hot Sam might make a move on her.

Three drinks in, and Sam abandons her to a greasy Dracula who seems bent on getting her into some sort of S&M action that involves teeth and necks and declarations that her vulnerability tastes like Chianti. She'd knee the guy in the groin except her feet have taken root to the tiles. It takes the handsome Viking host to extract her from the costumed nosferatu, but it's an ironic rescue at best.

She's been recruited, and vampire bait ain't nothing if it isn't fresh.
