A fun and laugh-out-loud read about internet dating in middle age with an appeal to rival Bridget Jones's Diary but it's even funnier, sharper and more wryly observed. The story follows Stella's first experiences at internet dating following the breakdown of her marriage. Unprepared and ill-equipped she muddles through unfamiliar territory with humorous and sometimes alarming consequences in this very enjoyable and entertaining read. Go on - try it and if you laugh and enjoy it, tell your friends to read it too.
