The Beginning of Sorrows: Biblical Paradigms for Comfort and Peace of Jerusalem in Times of War

Mr Brndon T Mathis

As the Peace talks between Israel and the Palestinian Authority continue to produce little results, and while a nuclear Iran becomes a reality right before our eyes, Jerusalem is coming upon a season that Jesus prophesied about in Matthew 24:8 called the Beginning of Sorrows. What should be our response to this season of conflict and impending war in Jerusalem and the Middle-East? Where should believers in Christ stand on the issue of Jerusalem and how should we pray? In this book, the Beginning of Sorrows, Brndon Mathis shares from a divine encounter he had in the city of Jerusalem, which unlocked for him the biblical text of Matthew 24, that is meant to position Jerusalem to be prepared for this season of sorrow, as well as for the return of her Messiah, who will ultimately bring an end and peace to this ancient biblical conflict. In the Beginning of Sorrows you will learn: 1. What really is the Peace of Jerusalem 2. What one sign from Matthew 24 will initiate the Beginning of Sorrows in Jerusalem. 3. How will God comfort Jerusalem with His rod and staff 4. What are the coming Judgments of the Four Blood Moons. 5. What is the gospel that must be preached before the end to this conflict comes 6. How do we correctly pray for the Peace of Jerusalem 7. How will All Israel be saved from the desolation of this Holy City.
