8 Historias sin vergüenza: ¿Resiliencia o don? (Spanish Edition) José Miguel Cejas

Las andanzas de Crack, un hombre del Este de Europa que acaba en una de las cárceles más peligrosas de África, son tan crudas como inolvidables. Conchi aporta una perspectiva diferente sobre el mundo de la prostitución. Un lituano, Kestutis Dvareckas, cuenta sin vergüenza un proceso íntimo que muy pocos se atreverían a relatar. Juan Havana, un conocido rapero sueco, recuerda como se introdujo en el mundo de la delincuencia por medio de un gánster amigo suyo; hasta que ese amigo le dio una sorpresa que no esperaba. Yulitza habla de su relación con el satanismo, mientras que Fran y Eva evocan los retos con los que se enfrentaron a los quince años: cleptomanía, alcoholismo y droga. Jane, Calum, Ariel y Patrice se atreven a hablar en voz alta de una dependencia sobre la que parece pesar un pacto de silencio. El autor completa estos testimonios con la historia de Tim Guénard: un hombre maltratado en la infancia, violado durante su adolescencia, que trabajó como gigoló en París y decidió hacerse boxeador para vengarse de su padre. Hasta que su vida dio un giro sorprendente. Estas páginas recogen historias fuertes, que rezuman esperanza y terminan de un modo insólito, porque el futuro nunca está escrito. Los hombres y las mujeres de este libro no son lo que pueden parecer a primera vista. Y este libro tampoco.
