Seventeen-year-old Tesla and her teenage sisters, Ally and ZeeZee, live by one rule: don't venture beyond the perimeter of the family ranch. Years ago, solar flares burned the power grid to ashes, plunging the country into mayhem and instability, but as long as the girls stay behind the line of their grandfather's property, they remain protected from savagery.

But when the call of the unknown proves too alluring for rebellious Ally to resist, Tesla must enlist mysterious Richmond Parrish to help rescue Ally from the trouble she's walked into.

The Florida coast is overrun with warring tribes and pirates, and orphaned children-turned-soldiers roam the land.

The quest to find Ally leads Tess and Richmond into the epicenter of this barbaric new world, but even if they find her, now that they've left the safety of life at the S-Line Ranch, will they really be able to go back?

Beyond the Strandline is a thrilling story about the struggle to stay human in an inhumane world, the importance of emergency preparedness, the illusion of safety, and the power of love to redeem even the most desperate.
