The Cellist Elaine White

After six years, cellist Roman returns home with boyfriend Ben, in search of more than just international fame. There's one complication he didn't count on. His high school crush, the straight, untouchable, Jaxton is there when he arrives. One performance at local club, Crimson 8, stirs emotions that were better left forgotten. With prior warning that the club is a gay man's fantasy come true, where anything and everything can happen, Jaxton is dragged along with a group of his friends, to see Roman play. What happens next, will change the course of all their lives forever.
