A Millennium ago Salihah became a vampire against her will. Today, going by the name Sally, she lives in the Motor City capitol of the world living a quiet unhappy life. She tries to stay content with her close friends and sired child, Javon. But her extreme loneliness is interrupted by handsome and rugged Connor, a werewolf who works for the Vampire Counsel. His job is to track down vampires who kill humans, unjustly. Sally resists Connor's advances, though she longs for his embrace, his touch. Thinking the Vampire Counsel will not allow their mating, she tells him she wants to be friends, all the while continuing to dream of his sexy body ravaging her own. Sally must decide if their love can overcome counsel rules and dictates, as Connor, blinded by a lust for what he sees as his, tries to convince her that together their love can conquer all.
