Catherine Pope had her happily ever after in sight, only to have it ripped away. To ensure it doesn't happen again, she constructs impenetrable walls around her heart. When Jackson Cole turns her world upside down, she'll have to fight every fear she has. Jackson pushes her, gives her hope, and terrifies her.

His training as a Navy SEAL never prepared him for the battle to win her heart, but he's determined to claim her. However, Jackson isn't without his own demons. If she lets him in and he destroys her ... can she survive?

Together they must decide if they are each other's beloved or if they're beholden to their fears.
