Here followeth the life of S. Edward King and Confessor In old time the realm of England was greatly troubled with the Danes, so that in many kings Sdays there could no peace be made, but continually wara war. And the Danes prevailed against England, and they brought it under their subjection, for their cruelty and tyranny was so great that, without sparing of anything, they burnt and destroyed. But at the last it pleased Almighty God that this tyranny should cease, and sent of his grace unto this realm of England a peaceable king named Edgar, in whose birth angels sang that peace should be in his time, and so in his days was no war in England. 8. Edward, king and mart3rr, his son, reigned not long after him, for his stepmother did do slay him in his young age, becauae her sonE thelred should reign,- and S. Dunstan baptized Ethelred, and said because he defiled the fontstone that, he should live in great trouble, and so he did, for the Danes warred all his time. And this Ethelred wedded Earl Godwin sdaughter, on whom he gatE dmond I ronside. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
