Marvel Illustrated - The Picture of Dorian Gray #2 (Marvel Comics) Roy Thomas [Adapted from Oscar Wilde]

Young Dorian wished that his portrait would bear the marks of age rather than his face. Much to his shock, the painting is, in fact, aging - and Gray is not! While Dorian's face is unchanging, his personality is in ugly ways. He's becoming cruel and secretive, showing a sadistic side of himself that is making those around him fear for their very lives! This is a tale of mounting menace that will send chills down your spine.
