A Mississippi Story: Fire, Ice & Roses Wanda Gaskin-Smith

This is a saga of love and commitment told through the eyes of soul people who see beyond the physical. It is a journey into the lives of ordinary folks in the late 1940's in rural northern Mississippi. It was a changing time for the town blacksmith Luther, his daughter Rosie, and his colored helper Paul.

It was a fire that bonded Luther and Paul. It was an ice storm that took them back to the haunting memories. It was the roses that reminded them of the beauty and love that lives on.
