They are like shadows in our cities, small outlines of skin and bones that attach themselves to abandoned buildings, park benches, narrow alleyways.

And when darkness falls, these shadows disappear into places many of us will never, ever see in this lifetime. Very few people know that faces of these shadows, or their names. They are America's untouchables and unreachables - America's street children.

Who exactly are these kids? How do they end up on our streets? Where do they come from? How do they manage to survive? Do they survive?

This is their incredible story, told from the front lines on America's darkest streets. Uncut. Unedited. Close to unbelievable.

And every single word is true.
