As organizations search for better ways to build workplaces that engage and empower their employees, their managers have turned to the Harvard Business Review for both the landmark ideas and the hard-won experiences that shape the field of human resources. Delivering Results collects the best of these articles into an accessible and engaging resource that documents the most influential thinking on effective human resource management. Framed by a new introduction by Dave Ulrich, author of the best-selling Human Resource Champions, the book provides actionable strategies that yield results from the factory line to the boardroom. A Harvard Business Review Book.
