The Listening Tree: Fifty Stories of Grace-full Everyday Living Joyce Ann Edmondson

The Listening Tree contains stories about faith, hope, love, children, grandchildren, families, friends, imaginary situations and visions of what the author and others have described as the kingdom of God—already here, not yet. These are stories of life in the South, high school days, college, marriage, death and renewal, and a Redemptorist priest who introduces a young girl to her faith in God. These life-filled stories include Scriptural references that depict real day-to-day situations. How Grandmother learns to meet the challenges of everyday life by inspiring a family to grow in Christ is entertaining as well as inspirational.
