It's the Christmas season and, though Elena is trying her best to make the most of the holiday, she can't seem to get into the spirit of it all. Her friends try to help her and both Damon and Stefan ignore the girl's request that they not buy her a gift, opting to form a competition in order to see which of them can offer a better present. Her choice between them grows more and more difficult as she considers each of their places within her life. An enchanting, lighthearted, festive story set during the show's third season, a moment is taken out of the chaotic life that is Mystic Falls. "Elena turned her head and met his gaze for what felt like the hundredth time that day. A small smile crossed her face and she embraced the current moment, where everything else was distant and nonexistent; a moment where only he resided."
