The Impact of Recent Changes in Government Contracts provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on the latest developments affecting state and federal contracts. Featuring partners from some of the nation's leading law firms, this book guides the reader through the various changes that have taken place in government contracts law and provides strategies for proactively complying with regulations. From the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act to the Department of Defense rules on conflicts of interest, these authors discuss the major regulatory and legislative developments with which contractors and their counsel must be familiar. Additionally, these top lawyers give tips on working with small businesses, mitigating the impact of debriefing requirements, and assuring compliance with regard to subcontractors. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts on the keys to success within this ever-changing field.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business and legal intelligence from leading C-Level executives and lawyers. Each chapter offers thought leadership and expert analysis on an industry, profession, or topic, providing a future-oriented perspective and proven strategies for success. Each author has been selected based on their experience and C-Level standing within the business and legal communities.
